WAKE UP LOOK AT THE REAL WORLD!!!!

"Satori" is a moment of Instant Enlightenment, the moment of personal awakening. This information can serve as a your catalyst for change, YOUR Satori.

You Must Change. Everything else is changing, every single moment. Look at the world around you. It's changing. When you don't change, you stagnate and die.

When you change with change, you become one with the changeless state. You "remain" in the center. This is known as "Zai" or harmony with nature.

Listen up, friend. I'm now going to share with you some Secrets Strategies & Tactics that will give you an edge in life in everything you do.

#1 ONAMI - The Tidal Wave!

Harmonize your Energy, Will and Intention so that everything you do and say is ENERGETICALLY SUPERIOR to other Intentions and Energies around you.

Every human, and groups of humans (and animals too), are made of Energy and Intention. Sometimes it's by design, sometimes it's by default, but it is always occurring. The energetic influence of others even affects you when you sleep!

SET YOUR MIND RIGHT NOW that You Will Be The Tidal-Wave of Harmonic Energy.

Decide it. Picture it in your mind. Breathe it in and let it fill your very being. Now harness it and use it to blow out all negative energies, habits and people, and focus it on the TOTAL LIFE THAT YOU WANT.

What do you want?

What you were TOLD to want? What you were CONDITIONED and PROGRAMMED to want? To discover what you really want, get to a quiet place and meditate - clear your mind of thoughts and tensions, let thoughts just float by and don't attach to them or fight with them. Let them just float by.

Become the Observer.

When you become the Observer, the Witness, then you Become the DIRECTOR, rather than the "Actor." Make sense? An Actor is told what to do by the director and the script. When YOU are the Director, you choose the script, the story, and how you want to act in it!

What could be more powerful than being in control of your own life?

Is it really that simple to do, like a movie Director? Yes, it is! The reason why you haven't done it up until now is because you didn't know that you could. Now that you know you can, GO FOR IT!

YOU CHOOSE: Your Thoughts; Your Behaviors; Your Actions; Your Activities; Your Likes and Dislikes; Your Goals; Your Abilities.

... not others! Stop letting them choose for you. Everything successful I've ever done, others told me why it wouldn't work. When I listened to them, I failed or never even tried in the first place. When I didn't listen to them, I succeeded beyond my wildest dreams... every time!

Someone once said, "yeah, easy for you to say. You don't understand my circumstances. My mom, my sisters, my boss, all of them are setting me up to fail."

To which I replied, "YOU do not understand your circumstances. Instead, you stand under them. You allow yourself to be their doormat. This is all within YOUR control. You are giving the power to your circumstances."

One circumstance is a pile of dog-shit on my lawn. I do not deny the existence of the circumstance. However, I do deny the circumstance power over me. And, I make choices to change my circumstances.

For one thing (and very importantly) I do not walk over to that pile of dog-shit and sit next to it and look at it, think about it, talk about it etc.. Instead, I go somewhere else, or I get a shovel and throw it the hell out of there. This very act alone empowers me greatly. A simple choice of focus and direction makes a big difference!

Either way, that dog pile does not capture my attention, thus it has no true power over me. I am aware of it, and then I leave it alone (or get rid of it) and head toward my goals with full power, like the tidal wave!

So no more excuses. No more alibis. Choose and create, choose and create, choose and create, and soon you'll be telling your story of success, rather than your story of "circumstances."

Life is an Artist's Canvas - YOU are the Artist

Freedom is back in your hands now. Let's keep it that way.

#2 SAMURAI SILENCE - Mind-Power on Steroids!

Practice the Art of AMUSED SILENCE. When you are every-so-slightly, yet genuinely, amused, and your mind and words are silent, your power increases. Other people feel compelled to speak - since they are not comfortable in silence - so you will learn their secrets in order to help them or destroy them, depending on which you are trying to do (for the right reasons of course)

PRACTICE the power of silence and it multiplies your power like a generator. Then, you can say very few words and GET MORE than you ever have before!

When your mind is busy and you are chattering too many words, you'll miss the opportunity (the green light), and you'll miss the warning (the red light). So by practicing silence, you "see more"

That alone can be extremely valuable to your life, fellow warrior.

#3 NINJA WORLD-VIEW - How the Winning Enlightened Warrior Sees Things!

Imagine if RIGHT NOW you were dropped in to your life as a secret agent - a spy - with a mission. This is no joke and no fantasy. It's real as real can be. Why? Because the only other choice is being an ignorant sheeple! So what's your mission?

Your Mission is To Survive AND Thrive

You are no longer a blank page for the world to write it's confusion, ignorance and programming (also known as "bullshit") on. Nor for well-meaning but ignorant caring people to write on. Respect others, Love others, but reserve sovereign power to Design Your Self.

This is life by Design, instead of life by Default.

Without compromising integrity and honor, you win at all costs. You win, because that is your mission. Nin-ja means "enduring person." You endure. You overcome. You TRANSCEND. You endure the pain of training, in order to bleed less in combat. You endure "circumstances" while preparing and executing plans for transcension into better circumstances. You create your life.

You write your rules for YOU. This is your Warrior's Creed, your Code of Conduct.

#4 SHUHARI - Personal Evolution to Enlightened Opulent Warrior NOW!

When these things "click" and you understand and operate in the wisdom of them, you become "Shuhari Warrior." Shuhari is literally a process of personal evolution. It means -

”SHU (protect) HA (detach, dare) RI (transcend)””

You must protect your energy and peace-of-mind, knowing it is the dwelling place of the gods and your ultimate resource for success. You must detach from the mediocrity and confusion of the world, you must dare to win, you must transcend. And it's not so much a matter of "must," it's a matter of "want to." You do want to win, right? Then start!

The 14 CREEDs of the SHUHARI WARRIOR:

1. I live by the "OCTAGON" - the acronym is OCTGNN - it means Order, Confidence, Toughness,Grace,Nobility, Not Moved by Praise or Persecution. This one alone gives you the life better lived!

2. I promote personal harmony, and avoid anger, violence and anti-life forces

3. I respect the property, space and beliefs of all (including my own). I am too busy working on myself to get caught up in the confusion of others.

4. I develop only healthy and significant relationships that are authentic and genuine. I choose not to participate in others, except when required for duty.

5. I avoid all energy thieves (and do not become an energy thief through ignorance or neglect)

6. I speak, think and operate in EXCELLENCE at all times

7. I never let others speak down to me or cause me to doubt my inherent value

8. I reject greed and envy, and keep fairness close to heart

9. I train my Body and Mind for Victory

10. I think like water, and have faith in my Warrior Spirit

11. I do not let others choose when or how I communicate. I choose all grounds and am an ardent student of Sun Tzu's Art of War.

12. I stay true to my self, and never disempower, weaken or cheapen myself

13. The misdirection and ignorance of the past, and it's behaviors and negative results, I acknowledge and release to the void. Now sewing new seeds for the future, I walk in Enlightenment and Power.

14. Knowing that only warriors win in life, I orient my life and prioritize myself in a way to live as a warrior, studying, training and enlightening myself.

#4 NINJA MIND POWER TACTICAL NOTES! - "Think Deeply on This"

• The way you allow others to treat you is the way you are training them to treat you.

• Create a Filter between your emotional reactions and your communication.

• Always step back from your first emotional response long enough to examine it with the Warrior's Eye for optimum strategy.

• Fight mean, dirty, quick and brutally. And then "poof!" you disappear!

• Keep the Body Attacking, and the Mind Abiding.

• Keep your Body Hard yet Relaxed, ready for anything - anytime!

• Quiet the mind and you'll see the warnings and the opportunities.

• "Know the enemy and know your self and in 1000 battles you'llnever be in danger"

• Adam did not lead, he followed. And he lost paradise.

• Life is made of Energy. The wise protect it and cultivate it.

- Energy is primarily leaked through thought and speaking.

- Only when we leave the Mechanical, can we begin to enter the Spiritual

- Awareness exists outside of the mechanical

- Turn off the chatterbox of your mind, then you can expand your peripheral vision and "see" the attacker before he even makes a move! The same goes with opportunities…

- Never Emotionally Invest in the Prideful, Greedy, Confused Jealous or Self-Righteous, they will take you for granted and blame you if they fail.

- Speak Powerfully, not timidly. Say what you mean with no doubt, fear, or worry.

- Think Powerfully! When you are thinking fearfully timidly or delusional, say out loud "stop! think Powerfully!"

- No negative friends. • Arguing common sense is a fool's errand

- When the attacker trying to kill you is so strong and big they seem impossible to hurt? Target "BENT!" Balls Eyes Nose Throat – at least one of these is fragile on any person. I have seen men kicked in the balls full-force and not appear hurt. I've seen a nose smashed and the guy kept on fighting powerfully. Yet likewise I have seen men stopped cold by them. Target all four and you're more likely to get the right one!

- Think "Business," not "Job." This is vital!

- You are either the Director, or the "directed."

- It is lonely at the top. People react to the success of others like LSD – they trip out and hallucinate! So don't worry about everybody liking you. Just go for your dream and better friends will find you.

- Studying the Ancient Wisdom of the Saints, Sadhus, Samurai, Ninja and others is useful empowering and enlightening. Why are some people afraid of this information?

- The triceps is the power behind the punch (not the biceps, although it looks good!)

- Practice complete silence of environment and mind for 10 minutes a day and your success will multiply!

- Where are you weak? On the ground? Kicking? Wherever it is, start sparring there!

- There's always someone who can beat you. That's okay. You can still make them pay VERY dearly for the privilege, and they may be wise enough to realize it's not worth it to beat you.

- When you are attacked, do not try to avoid being hurt. It is a sure way to defeat.

- Whatever you do, make sure you enjoy doing it. Fun is a HUGE key to success.

- Money is necessary. Have a good sum of it. But if that is what is most important to you, you have lived in illusion.

- Bring your awareness to how you walk. Notice it? Good. Now straighten up and bring to every movement THE POWER OF INTENTION AND PURPOSE.

- It's easy to see the thoughts of others and sense their energy when you look at them through a NON-ATTACHED MIND!

- When you are attached to your desires, you put out a "pushing-away" energy.

- When you are attached to you own desires and conclusions, you see people and circumstances as YOU are (This is what is meant by the term "perception is projection"). By being non-attached, you can see how they REALLY are (this is called "awareness")

- Lose out in the market? Blow a big deal? Lose a ton of money? Good. Welcome to life. Now go out there and kick some ass! Or would you rather sit around and whine? Or would you rather sit around and be afraid?

- You allowed yourself to be put in a box – democrat, republican, religious, atheist, etc. How much can one see from the inside of a box?

- At every moment, these questions define you: "Is that who you are? Is that what you're really about?"

- Your Intuition and your Conscience are your most valuable assets

- Be Still and Know (the opposite is also true: Be un-still and you'll be ignorant!)

- Fear will always remain when you are attached to the outcome.

- Lay down the rules right at the start. If you neglected to do this, lay them down right now before proceeding forward.

- Stepford wives, Stepford people. They are shallow and should be avoided.

- Design or Default. Which are you living by?

- Order is Heaven's First Law. Put it in your life now and keep it there.

- Do not let the culture define you. Define yourself.
